

Meet the Practitioner Dominique Fraser

Research Analyst at the Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect

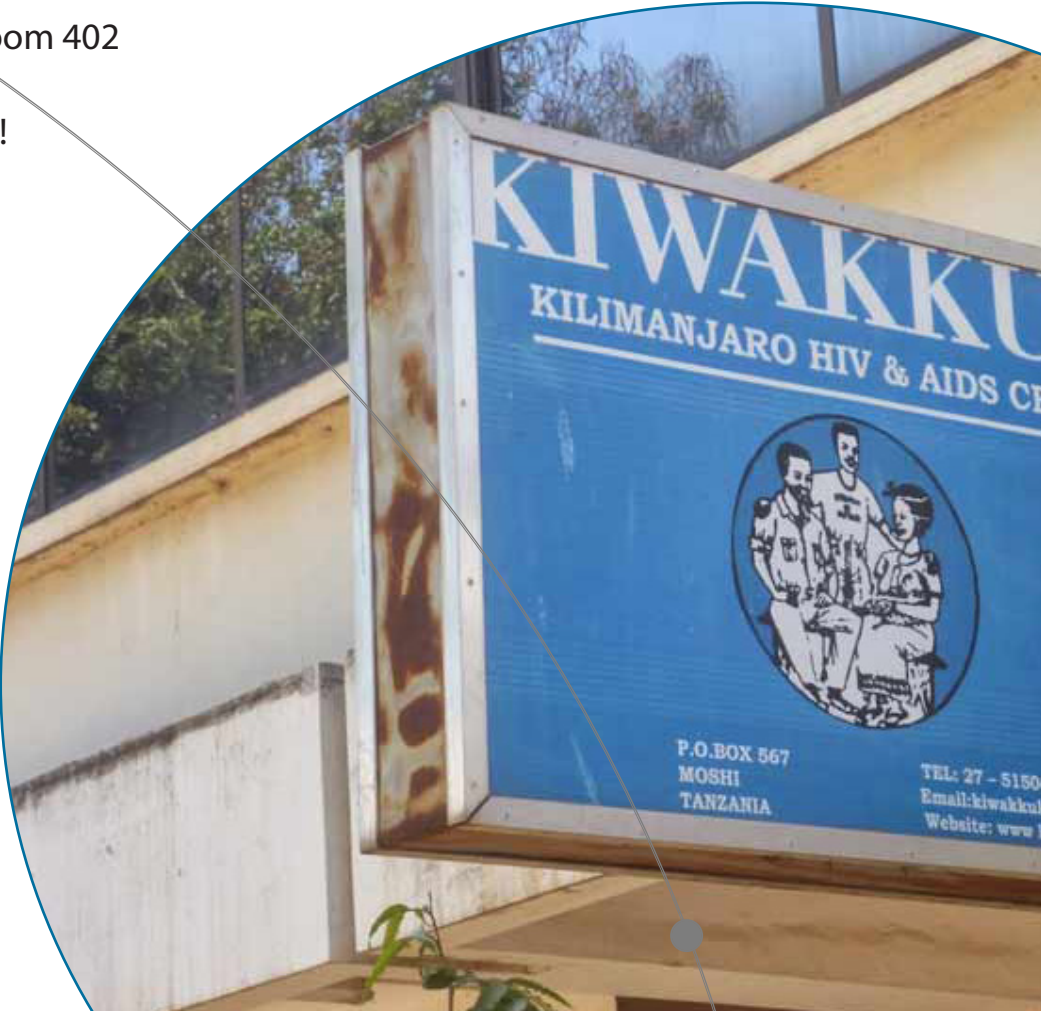

Dominique Fraser is a student of the Master of International Affairs programme at the Graduate Institute in Geneva Switzerland. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Peace and Conflict Studies from the University of Queensland, and also graduated as Valedictorian with a first class Honours degree in International Relations from the same university. Her research has focused on peacekeeping in sub-Saharan Africa, the Responsibility to Protect (R2P), and Women Peace and Security. Dominique has previously interned with the Global Centre for the R2P in New York, worked with the Women's League for International Peace and Freedom in Brisbane, and volunteered with a local HIV/AIDS organization in Tanzania.

WHEN: Thursday 4th May 2017 5pm - 6pm

WHERE: Building GPN39A, Room 402

No RSVP necessary - All Welcome!

“Learn with the Knowledge Leaders”

THE UNIVERSITY
OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

Create change