

Application to Enrol in CRMD7000 Mediation

Course Description: Mediation is an effective way of resolving disputes and is now used in most Australian courts and tribunals. In some areas an extensive pre-litigation scheme exists and parties are required to attend mediation prior to commencing litigation. It is also used extensively in the resolution of community conflicts and in international peacemaking. In international and environmental areas, facilitators use mediation skills to assist the creation of innovative solutions. Increasingly, conflict resolution skills are required in management and business to effectively prevent, manage and resolve disputes and complaints. This interactive course was developed to meet the National Mediator Accreditation System (NMAS). Emphasising practical skills, students practice the theory of mediation by mediating and participating in a range of conflict role play simulations whilst receiving individual feedback on their style and overall performance by highly qualified practitioners. In the skills component, participants work with the mediation model and learn alternative approaches to deal with varying circumstances.

This course has a quota of 27 enrolments. To be considered for enrolment please complete this Application Form and return via email to polsis@uq.edu.au no later than 31 January for Semester 1 enrolments. Preference will be given to those students for whom the course is a compulsory core requirement of their program. Other applications will be assessed for enrolment on the basis of academic merit and the statement provided. Applicants will be notified of the outcome to their student email account.

Full Name:

Student ID:

Phone:

When is this application for? Year: _____ Semester: _____

Program:

Course: CRMD7000

In a maximum of 250 words, describe why you want to take this course. Focus on your personal, professional, or academic experience and aspirations.